Hispanic Heritage Month Humanitarian Award

≈Nomination Form≈

The 13th Annual Hispanic Heritage Month State Commemoration will take place on October 11, 2019 at the State Capitol Rotunda. The Hispanic Heritage Month State Commemoration Committee is currently seeking nominations for the 2019 Humanitarian Award. We are asking your help to recognize an individual who has enhanced multicultural understanding, communication, and social justice in Nebraska. Please explain in 350 words or less why you believe this individual should receive the 2019 Humanitarian Award.

Nominations are strongly urged and may be submitted by Nebraska residents of all ages and of all ethnicities and backgrounds. We are looking for an individual who meets and demonstrates one or more of the following criteria below:

Humanitarian Award Criteria:

- Dedication has led to improvements in the quality of life within the Hispanic community
- Promotion of equality, social justice, human dignity and diversity in the community
- Exemplify, through actions, the role of a humanitarian and leader for the Hispanic community
- Achievement of cross-cultural understanding in the community
- Advocate for underrepresented youth, especially Hispanic youth

The Hispanic Heritage Month Committee will review the nominations and make the final selection. For additional information, call Leo Barrientos at 402-471-2791. Send Nominations via email to Leo.Barrientos@nebraska.gov or to:
